In consideration of my undergoing and receiving this course of training, I hereby agree as follows:

- 1) To meet the requirements for training and supervision as laid down for this course.
- 2) Not to betray confidentiality in respect of any information I may receive from, or about, any other delegates in the course of training.
- 3) I understand that at various times during the training, inclusion of my own personal process is integral to the experiential learning provided. This includes personal work in dyads and triads and role-plays in which I will explore my psychological process through imagery and interactions with others.
- 4) To ensure that I have sufficient support mechanisms ("go-to" people) in my life to help me with the psychological impact of the training and the impact of working with vulnerable children in a school setting
- 5) TISUK reserve the right to ask a delegate to leave the training should we feel it is putting their psychological well-being at risk.
- 6) On the rare occasion when TISUK feels that it is not appropriate for a delegate's training to continue, we reserve the right to ask the delegate to leave the training. This would be fully explained. This would also include any rude, bullying, discriminatory, intimidating, and physically or verbally abusive behaviour, or if someone is deemed to be acting in some way which is detrimental to the learning of others. Wherever possible a meeting with feedback would precede this to try to find a better way forward.

7) Loss or personal injury on the course

We regret that we cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage incurred on the course. We cannot be held responsible for any personal injury from personal negligence.

8) Postponement of training days

Due to exceptional unforeseen events outside of our control, TISUK reserve the right to postpone a two-day training module. On most courses we have two trainers to help insure against this happening.
